Tomb of Tutankhamun

\(Tutankhamun Exhibition in London Nov 07 - Aug 08\)

As well as looking at the tomb and its contents, this lecture seeks to put Tutankhamun in context, to explain why he was buried in the Valley of the Kings, how the tomb escaped plundering and its eventual discovery.

Lecture by Clive Barham-Carter

Major visit 2008 - Goodwood Sunday 5 October

Spend the morning at Goodwood House enjoying an extensive tour including all the art works. The famous Shell House is included but lunch is not, although we have a room in which to eat it! After lunch we are driven to the Cass Sculpture Foundation also within the Goodwood grounds. The 70 sculptures are set amongst the ancient woodlands of the Sussex Downs. This is the first time we have actually been to see sculpture so don't miss this opportunity to see the work of today's leading British artists. Booking May 28th

The total cost is £38.00 per head, booking begins at the lecture on 28 May. Book early to avoid disappointment!

Visit Sunday April 27th

HAROLD FALKNER - FARNHAM

This was a fascinating tour around the Falkner buildings. Visiting two in Great Austins and another two in Dippenhall—one of which had recently been beautifully restored. The other was only bought a little while ago with years of work ahead to get it to a good condition. The location and views were stunning so this Harold clearly had a good eye.
