Major visit 2008 - Goodwood Sunday 5 October

Spend the morning at Goodwood House enjoying an extensive tour including all the art works. The famous Shell House is included but lunch is not, although we have a room in which to eat it! After lunch we are driven to the Cass Sculpture Foundation also within the Goodwood grounds. The 70 sculptures are set amongst the ancient woodlands of the Sussex Downs. This is the first time we have actually been to see sculpture so don't miss this opportunity to see the work of today's leading British artists. The total cost is £38.00 per head, booking is ongoing throughout the summer—please contact Jillian Sturgess. Places available

Bursary Winners

The Bursary winners this year were Julie Wise, who has just finished her second year at UCCA, studying Ceramics and Victoria Jones who will start her foundation year in Art and Design in September. Cobbett's Wey is delighted to be able to encourage and help young artists in this way. A display of work by last year's winners, Adele Cook and Lucy Emanuel, who has just completed a foundation year at UCCA.
